Hello, folks.

I didn't get my regular letter off me so well. - I didn't know a thing to write, anyway! - And I definitely wasn't in the mood for it. I was in the throes of the North African Cold again! - I can usually look for it once every 5 or 6 weeks it seems. - As can everyone else. - I recognized the symptoms earlier and the Doc had some improved medicine, so I came out of it much better than before. - I'm feeling almost normal today.

This afternoon I took my automobile completely apart. Today I left on pushing gadgets and had a whole slew of 'em! - However there were no extra parts left when I got it together, so guess I did it correctly! - After supper I went down to the river bank and tried it out. It sure works lot better than it used to! - I didn't do too bad shooting either, for a city feller! "It's a good life" until dull around here just now. "It's a good life" until you go on a trip!

Things are sort of dull around here I usually feel around with left for a trip yesterday - he will be gone several days so it sorts leave me to shift for myself - He has gone to one of the biggest cities in Africa where they are supposed to have everything I gave him some money and he is to pick up some souvenirs if he can find any worth while - If he does well, things I'll get a chance to go there myself in 3 or 4 weeks - then we'll see! Had a letter from both Fred & Brother yesterday - that's the way I like to see 'em come!

More next time, be good! V --- MAIL
